COLUMBIA PARK BOYS TO STAY ONLY ONE DAY HERE

Youthful Travelers Will Arrive on Makura and Go on the Alameda--Tentative
Day's Program.

The Columbia Park boys will stay in Honolulu only one night instead of three weeks as at first expected. Arrangements have been made for them to go up to the Coast on the Alameda on February 2nd, as the Makura will arrive on the first of that month, there will just be time for them to play one game of baseball and give one concert.

Harold Holme, advance man for Major Peckotto, outlines a rough program which will be more definitely settled on later. He wishes to thoroughly understand that this trip of the Columbia Park boys is not in any sense a money-making scheme. The trip is only just paying expenses, but it is paying them and this is all that the boys look for.

The objects of the trip are outlined as follows: The improvement of the boys themselves; the introduction of the Australian football game into the United States; a better mutual understanding between the Australian boys and the American boys; a return visit of a party of Americans for the sake of obtaining the above three objects.

Outline of Program.

The program for February 1st is outlined as follows: The improvement of the boys themselves; the introduction of the Australian football game into the United States; a better mutual understanding between the Australian boys and the American boys; a return visit of a party of Americans for the sake of obtaining the above three objects.

After the reception the boys will go to lunch and then they will go to one of the local grounds where they will play a game of baseball with one of the local teams, which one is not yet arranged.

The entertainment of the boys is in charge of Mrs. H. W. Hendrick. She is making arrangements for them to be received in homes here for the one night that they will be here and is having no difficulty in securing all the accommodation needed.

During the eight months that the boys have been on tour they have been received everywhere they went and have always had homes to go to. Honolulu is not to be behind the Australian boys in hospitality and, as this will be the first visit of the United States the boys here will be doubly appreciated by them.

The above remarks related the headquarters of the Columbia Park boys when he was in San Francisco and he was enthusiastic over Major Peckotto's work. He is taking a keen interest in the arrangements for the reception of the boys here and is working to make their visit a success.

A few weeks ago in his shirt and in his pants, the latter containing twenty dollar gold pieces, of which there were about seven.

Without noticing that Jerry made his way to a stylin' looking barber shop and sat himself down. All the chairs were occupied, so he possessed his soul in patience with a moaning groan.

Now the foreman of a tribe of cut-throats, who have just alighted from a penitentiary trip across the continent, is not a little looking specimen. Jerry had a ten-day growth of beard, dirty trousers and a worse shirt with wads of spittle swimming to make him look like a desperado.

The boys at the barber shop took Jerry's appearance in hand and up to him. He looked up at the barber and said: "Say, fellow, this is of it. I'm a new place." Jerry looked up at him, never said a word, but merely nodded.

When a chair was vacant Jerry thrust himself in it and took the whole ground. He had a shaven head, shaven face and all the rest of the trimmings. When it came to getting a haircut he produced a razor and a gold piece. The barber looked at it, tried it over, and then handed it to the man who ran out of the shop and, after verifying it at the bank, brought the change back. Jerry worked out without a word.

That day Jerry's family of cut-throats, who had in New York been hanging round the docks, were now hanging round the docks of Honolulu. They were now hanging round the docks of Honolulu.

POULTRY TO BE JUDGED TODAY

The N. G. H. shooting gallery will be a busy place today. The hens, chickens, roosters, pigeons and all the other kinds of birds to be exhibited to the public tomorrow are to be judged today. J. J. Greene, secretary of the local poultry association, will be a very busy man, as will be the judges.

Some four hundred birds were cooped yesterday, and early this morning judging will commence. Tomorrow at noon the public will be admitted to the show. By that time all the blue, red and white ribbons will have been attached to the various coops and, if they have not been pecked off, the public will see which is which and what is what.

If only the ordinary householder of Honolulu would awaken and see what these poultry shows are doing for him, he would take a great interest in the coming show. Eggs is high, turkeys are high, in Honolulu, and broilers are high. Whose fault is it? According to the promoters of the show it is the fault of the people who do not take an interest in poultry. They claim that conditions for raising chickens here are ideal, if people would only give more attention to the opportunities.

There are a few enthusiasts who do try and raise the right breeds for this climate. But there are too many amateurs who mix breeds and set their hens on any old kind of eggs. A more careful system of breeding and an added interest in the great science of poultry raising is what the poultry show people want, and they are doing a mighty good work. Now it is up to Mrs. Housewife, her husband, cousins and aunts to patronize the show.

OUTRIGGER CLUB DIRECTORS MEET

The directors of the Outrigger Club held a meeting last night at the Hawaiian Hotel. The bids for the new clubhouse were opened and the lowest one of $675 was accepted. This amount is a little more than the sum in hand, and a committee was appointed to go out and get the balance.

Kenneth Beatty, captain, and five more of the club, were present, and he stated that the clubhouse can now be raised and that the exhibition of surfing and water polo, to be given while the Clark excursionists are here, can easily be arranged.

The Kamehameha Athletic Club will be invited to take part in the exhibition, and everything looks fair for a fine exhibition of the great Hawaiian sport while the tourists are here.

A vote of thanks was passed to the ladies of the Auxiliary Club, who have done so much to make the Outrigger Club what it is today, a place for members of both sexes to be entertained and instructed in the wonderful delights of surfing.
